Dub Nation,

I am proud to share the Golden State Warriors' 2025-26 Community Impact Report, which celebrates another year of meaningful work across the Bay Area. The impact highlighted in these pages is only possible because of the collective efforts of our fans, partners, players, coaches, and front office staff, all united by a shared commitment to giving back to the communities we call home. Together, we have touched the lives of more than 3 million people through initiatives focused on education, health and wellness, economic development, and civic engagement. Thank you for your continued partnership and support in helping make this work possible. On behalf of the entire Golden State organization, we look forward to building on this momentum and creating an even greater impact in the year ahead.

Our Pillars

We are committed to taking an active interest in the well-being of our community and to be great corporate citizens. We strive to develop life-long fans of the game of basketball through cause-marketing programs and initiatives and are dedicated to improving the quality of life for those who are underserved in our community. During the 2025-26 Season we held over 98 community events within our four pillars of Education, Health & Wellness, Civic Engagement, and Economic Development.

Education

Expanding access to learning opportunities that empower underserved youth and adults to thrive.

Health & Wellness

Promoting physical, mental, and emotional wellbeing to ensure our community can live healthy, vibrant lives.

Civic Engagement

Encouraging active participation and connection to foster a united and empowered community through volunteerism, service and voter engagement.

Economic Development

Supporting pathways to financial stability and generational wealth through economic opportunity, job readiness and skill building.

Creative Threads

Creative Threads, presented by Adobe, is an immersive workshop series to transform young professionals from consumers into creators. Creative Threads merges cutting-edge digital design with traditional craftsmanship, inviting participants to engineer their own one-of-a-kind wearable art. The journey begins in the digital realm, where participants use Adobe Firefly and Express to conceptualize and iterate on their designs. From there, The Campus expert team provides hands-on mentorship through the physical construction process, covering material science, structural alterations, and professional finishing techniques. By the end of the program, every designer walks away with a pair of custom sneakers that represent the intersection of their personal brand and professional creativity.

AAPI Building Community

Career Day

Seven Golden State team members (representing Public Affairs, Finance, Suite Sales & Service, Partnership Development, and People Operations) shared their career journeys and offered actionable advice to students transitioning to college. The session focused on exposing students to the business side of sports and entertainment, highlighting professional career paths outside of being a professional athlete. Students received a guided tour of the arena, exploring exclusive back-of-house operations and learning what it takes to run a world-class venue.

Black Alliance Network

Dr. Harry Edwards

Golden State hosted a fireside chat featuring renowned sociologist and scholar-activist Dr. Harry Edwards, Professor Emeritus at UC Berkeley and the architect of the 1968 Olympic Project for Human Rights. Drawing from his seminal work, The Revolt of the Black Athlete, this discussion honored the legacy of Black pioneers while bridging the gap between historical movements and contemporary efforts for equality. The conversation explored Dr. Edwards' personal journey and the enduring relevance of organized community leadership, demonstrating how the platform of sports can be leveraged to drive meaningful leadership and community progress today.

Honoring Pioneers

Ruby Bridges

As part of our celebration of Black Heritage, the Warriors honored Ruby Bridges as an Impact Warrior. Ruby became the first Black child to attend an all-white elementary school in Louisiana alone during the New Orleans school desegregation crisis in 1960. Today, her legacy lives on through The Ruby Bridges Foundation, empowering the next generation to lead with courage. She continues to champion equity, empathy, and inclusion for all.

Fuerza

Unitedly x Golden State Game Day Hosting

Five Unitedly team members chaperoned 12 high school basketball players from San Mateo County for an exclusive, two-hour pre-doors program at the Golden State Warriors' arena.

LATA Scholarship

For the fifth consecutive year, Fuerza (the Latino Employee Resource Group at Golden State) partnered with Latin American Teachers Association (LATA) to award scholarships to local, first generation Latino high school students pursuing higher education. Fuerza members collectively raised $4,760 to fund four scholarships for students to attend community college and four year institutions. Since 2021, Fuerza has awarded $18,200 in scholarships to 21 students.

PRIDE Alliance

National Coming Out Day & International Pronouns Day Celebration

In celebration of National Coming Out Day and International Pronouns Day, the Pride Alliance ERG hosted a community-centered gathering focused on authenticity, visibility, and connection. The event tipped off with a hands-on crafting session where members created DIY pronoun pins, followed by a powerful Leadership Discussion Panel where ERG members and leaders courageously shared their personal coming-out stories, insights, and reflections. By fostering deeply meaningful connections among peers, the event celebrated the courage it takes to live openly and honestly. Ultimately, this stood out as the ERG's most attended event of the fiscal year. This stood out as our most attended event of the fiscal year, bringing together 32 participants. Notably, it served as a major gateway for community growth, welcoming 11 first-time attendees to the Pride ERG.

Women of Golden State

Sip and Swish, presented by Michelob Ultra

The Golden State Warriors, Michelob Ultra, and the Women of Golden State hosted the 4th annual "Sip and Swish" Bay Area Mixer, successfully executing a powerful triple-partner collaboration designed to connect, network, and bond women across the region's sports landscape. The event drew 120 attendees, an impressive 35% increase in attendance compared to 2025. In addition to deepening engagement among established partners like the Giants, Earthquakes, and 49ers, this year's mixer also successfully welcomed and integrated new teams into the community, including Bay FC and The Bay Golf Club.

Women of Golden State

SF Safehouse

Continuing their meaningful collaboration with SF Safehouse—a non-profit dedicated to empowering and supporting women experiencing housing instability, sexual exploitation, or human trafficking—the Women of Golden State drove several impactful initiatives this year. The partnership began with a Holiday Briefing and Clothing Drive, where the group hosted two SF Safehouse team members to learn about their mission while simultaneously launching a clothing drive that collected two boxes of donations. Additionally, all remaining apparel from an internal Clothing Swap was successfully donated to the organization, seamlessly merging sustainability goals with community support. Finally, the Women of Golden State hosted SF Safehouse at their annual "Sip & Swish" event, providing the non-profit with a dedicated tabling platform that amplified their mission and granted them vital visibility to over 120 sports industry representatives across the Bay Area.
