NBA PLAYOFFS
Presented by Google Pixel

The NBA has continued its new guidelines regarding game day credentials and access into the 2024-25 NBA Playoffs:

• A limited number of new Tier 1 credentials are available for qualifying media outlets, which will grant access to the locker room both pre- and post-game, as well as pre-game court access (this designation will be clearly marked on 2024-25 Pacers season or single-game credentials).

• As outlined by the NBA, to qualify for Tier 1 access, media outlets must have a standard editorial process/ structure in place to govern credentialed reporters.

• Additionally, outlets for the Tier 1 designation will meet the following criteria:

• Media outlets must create original news content and/or

• Media outlets should regularly cover the team by either traveling consistently or attending most of the team's games and practices in the home market.

It is important to note that Pacers' gameday media availabilites will largely remain unchanged from the 2023-24 season (a key exception continuing that there will no longer be an option to join media availabilities via Zoom) and that the following access will be available to all credentialed media outlets:

• The home and visiting head coach, as well as two key players from each game, will be available following the game in designated areas accessible to all credentialed media members and outlets. The locker room would then be open to a limited number of qualifying Tier 1 media outlets.

• Home and visiting head coaches will again be available pre-game in designated areas accessible to all credentialed media members and outlets. The home head coach will be available 105 minutes prior to the game, the visiting head coach will be available 90 minutes prior to the game.

MEDIA SEATING & WORK SPACE

Media seating will be in sections 16 and 107 of Gainbridge Fieldhouse. Seating charts will be on the televisions in the Bill York Media Room; and seats will be designated with seat cards.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Upon arrival, please see a member of the Pacers' Media Relations staff for instructions on where to shoot. All requirements above apply to photographers.

Due to space limitations, priority will be given to those that have covered the Pacers on a regular basis in the past.

• Should we not be able to credential an outlet for a particular game, arrangements can be made to provide photos of that particular game.

• All photographers shooting from the floor must wear photo vests. These vests will be issued by Basketball Communications prior to each game and MUST be returned after the game.

• Only those assigned photographers will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times.

• Overflow photography areas are available in Sections 16 and 107 for the playoffs. Photographs must NOT shoot from ticketed seats.

For television stations planning to do live shots, please include in the 48-hour credential request, and on arrival you will be taken to a designated area for the live shot.

• Should we not be able to credential an outlet for a particular game, arrangements can be made to provide phots of that particular game.

For television stations planning to do live shots, please include in the 48-hour credential request, and on arrival you will be taken to a designated area for the live shot.

• If planning to shoot the game, 48 hours notice is required for planning purposes due to space limitations.

MEDIA AVAILABILITIES

Pregame and postgame media availabilities for both teams will be conducted in-person. Please note, due to room size, in-person availabilities may be limited for games with larger media crowds.

Pregame and postgame locker room access will be limited to Tier 1 media members only. Head coach Rick Carlisle and two players will be available in the Collins-Fuson Interview Room after home games and at the designated media space on the road.

PRINTING

All media notes and information will continue to be distributed accordingly, but very limited printed materials will be provided to media. Access to a digital media site that contains live game information and box scores, interviews, photos, notes and other pertinent game information will be shared by the basketball communications staff.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA POLICY

All international media (affiliations distrubted outside of the U.S.) requests are handled by the NBA International Public Relations Department.

Any international media member interested in covering an Indiana Pacers regular season game must first submit a request in writing to the NBA. Please do not contact the Pacers individually.

All credential requests must be received at lest three business days prior to the first games requested.

Requests may be FAXED to the attention of:

NBA International

KEVIN PRITCHARD
PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

When Larry Bird stepped down in May, 2017 as President of Basketball Operations, he didn't have to look far for his replacement: across the office where Kevin Pritchard was sitting.

Pritchard, who enters his eighth season as President of Basketball Operations, took the necessary steps to his current position. He started as Director of Player Personnel, became General Manager in 2012 and later became the Pacers' Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations/General Manager.

"I have the utmost faith in Kevin taking over," said Pacers' owner Herb Simon said in 2017. "He has learned from a couple of great ones, Donnie Walsh and Larry, while with the Pacers. We all feel he will do a tremendous job."

"I want to thank Herb, Larry and Donnie (Walsh) for giving me the opportunity of a lifetime," said Pritchard. "As someone who grew up in Indiana (he was born in Bloomington), I've always felt the Pacers' pride. The goal is always going to be the same as it has been through Donnie and Larry: to make this a world-class organization."

It was Bird who originally brought Pritchard to the Pacers and he added, "I'm very happy Kevin is stepping in and glad another Hoosier is in line to take over this job. He has a lot of experience from his years as a GM and he's ready to step into a leading role. With us, he has had his own ideas on the draft, players, and has used this an opportunity to push his basketball abilities to the forefront. His role is no different than mine was. He makes all final decisions on all basketball-related matters. There can only be one voice and it will be his."

Prior to coming to the Pacers, Pritchard was the general manager of the Portland Trail Blazers from 2007-10 where he was instrumental in landing 2007 Rookie of the Year Brandon Roy and 2007 first team, All-Rookie member LaMarcus Aldridge. In his time with the Trail Blazers, Pritchard helped turn around a team that eventually posted its sixth-best record (54-28) in franchise history in 2008-09, a year that marked Portland's return to the playoffs for the first time in six seasons.

The 53-year-old Pritchard was born in Bloomington, Ind., and played collegiately at Kansas where he was a member of the Jayhawks' 1988 National Championship team. He played in the NBA with Golden State (drafted in the second round, 34th overall, by the Warriors), Boston, Philadelphia, Miami and Washington. He also played internationally in Italy, Spain and Germany.

After his playing career, Pritchard was the coach/general manager of the Kansas City Knights of the ABA, winning a championship in 2002. He has scouted for the San Antonio Spurs and became the Blazers' Director of Player Personnel in 2004. In the 2004-05 season, he served as the Blazers' interim coach for 27 games, then in 2006 became Portland's assistant general manager before taking over the GM position in 2007.

Kevin is married to Tatiana. He has two sons, K.J. and Lucas, two daughters, Kendall and Valentina, and a granddaughter, Ava.

CHAD BUCHANAN
GENERAL MANAGER

Chad Buchanan is in his eighth season with the Pacers as General Manager after taking the position in July 2017.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Buchanan was with the Charlotte Hornets as Assistant General Manager for three seasons. In that role, he took part in many aspects of the team's basketball operations including professional and collegiate scouting, draft preparations, player acquisitions and salary cap management. He has assumed many of those same duties as the Pacers' General Manager.

Before going to Charlotte Buchanan spent 10 seasons with the Trail Blazers, the last seven as Director of College Scouting. He also served as the team's Acting General Manager during the 2011-12 season, overseeing the 2011 NBA Draft, player transactions and free agency.

During his time in Portland, Buchanan focused on all college and international scouting, while also managing the development of the scouting database, organizing pre-draft workouts and assisting with NBA player evaluation.

Prior to joining the Trail Blazers, Buchanan spent eight seasons in college basketball, serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Iowa from 1995-97 before becoming an assistant coach at Simpson College from 1997-2002. In 2002, he was an assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel for the Kansas City Knights (ABA), before returning to the college ranks as an assistant coach at Drake University from 2003-04.

A native of West Des Moines, Iowa, Buchanan played both baseball and basketball for four years at Simpson College, where he earned a degree in business management in 1995. He went on to receive his master's in athletic administration from the University of Iowa.

Buchanan and his wife, Melanie, have three children, Treyson, Addilane and Aceio.

TED WU

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS/ ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Ted Wu is in his fifth season as Vice President/Basketball Operations. In his role, Ted uses his expertise on CBA system rules and league transactions to assist with the team's strategy in player acquisitions and roster planning. Prior to joining the Pacers, Ted worked eight years with the NBA league office as a member of the Salary Cap Management team where he oversaw the administration of the league's player contract system.

He advised all 30 teams on strategy related to contract signings, trades, and the salary cap and tax system and was also a key contributor in the negotiation of the 2017 CBA with the National Basketball Players Association.

Ted was born and raised in New Jersey and attended the NYU Stern School of Business where he received a Master's Degree in Accounting and Bachelor's Degree in Marketing. After graduating, Ted worked at KPMG for two years before joining the NBA to pursue his career passion in sports. Ted and his wife, Anna, have two sons, Archer and Maxwell.

RYAN CARR

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Ryan Carr is entering his 24th season with the Pacers, the fourth in his current role after serving as Director of Player Personnel for two years. RICK CARLISLE
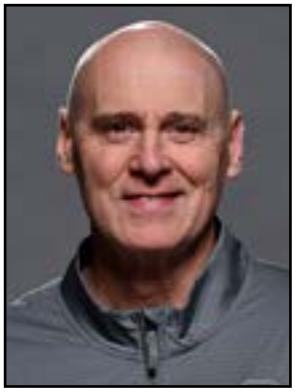
HEAD COACH



Seeking an established leader and winner to fill their coaching vacancy after the 2020-21 season, the Pacers turned to a familiar voice as they named Rick Carlisle as the team's head coach on June 30, 2021.

"I want to thank Herb Simon, Kevin (Pritchard), Chad (Buchanan) and the Pacers organization for having me back for a third time," said Carlise during his introductory press conference. "This has been a very special place for me and my family."

After making significant strides in his second season in 2022-23, the Pacers saw another significant jump in 2023-24 as the team garnered early success while earning a spot in the NBA's inaugural In-Season Tournament championship game. Tyrese Halburton improved under Carlisle's tutelage, earning a spot on the All-NBA Team for the first time in his career before leading Indiana back to the Eastern Conference Finals for the first time since the 2013-14 season.

The Pacers made postseason appearances in each of Carlisle's first three seasons (2003-06) as head coach while winning 18 playoff games over that span. Indiana reached the Eastern Conference Semifinals in 2004-05 before falling in six games to the eventual-Eastern Conference champion Detroit Pistons.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Pacers under head coach Larry Bird from 1997-2000. Carlisle helped lead the team to three straight Eastern Conference Finals appearances, including the franchise's first appearance in the NBA Finals in 2000.

Carlisle ranks third among active NBA head coaches in career coaching victories behind San Antonio's Gregg Popovich and Milwaukee's Doc Rivers. Over the course of the 2023-24 season, he became the Pacers' franchise leader in NBA coaching wins, surpassing the previous mark held by Frank Vogel (250). He is now one of four coaches to lead two different franchises in NBA coaching victories (Red Auerbach, Phil Jackson, Lenny Wilkens). Carlisle has also climbed into 12th place in NBA history in career victories, most recently passing Red Auerbach (938) with Indiana's win over Brooklyn April 1, 2024.

Carlisle has now led his teams to the playoffs 17 times in his 24 seasons and ranks 17th in NBA history with 71 playoff victories.

"Rick is a proven winner, a champion and will be a Hall of Fame coach," said Pacers President of Basketball Operations Kevin Pritchard. "He has demonstrated throughout his career an ability to build something with sustainable success. He has great respect for our franchise and our fans from his previous times here."

Carlisle began his head coaching career with Detroit in 2001-02. During his two-season tenure, the Pistons won 61 percent (100-64) of their games to go along with two Central Division championships and a trip to the 2003 Eastern Conference Finals. Following his first season, Carlisle earned the NBA's Coach of the Year award.

Including his two seasons with Detroit and first with Indiana in 2003-04, Carlisle became the first coach since Pat Riley to win 50 games and division championships in each of his first three seasons as a head coach.

Carlisle completed 13 seasons as the head coach of the Dallas Mavericks from 2008-21. He became the winningest coach in Mavericks history in 2015 and finished with a 555-478 overall record (.537) in Dallas. He guided the Mavericks to the franchise's first world championship in 2011 while posting a 16-5 mark during the 2011 postseason. Overall, Carlisle led the Mavericks to the postseason nine times in his 13 seasons with the team.

Also an NBA champion as a player with the Boston Celtics in 1986, Carlisle is one of only 14 individuals to win an NBA championship as both a player and a head coach.

Carlisle served as an ESPN studio analyst during the 2007-08 NBA season before taking the lead coaching role with the Mavericks. He also currently holds the role as president of the NBA Coaches Association.

Carlisle began his coaching career in 1989 as an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. In five seasons with the Nets, he had the opportunity to work under Hall of Fame coaches Bill Fitch and Chuck Daly. Carlisle then moved on to Portland, where he spent three seasons as an assistant under P.J. Carlesimo.

In 1984, Carlisle began his NBA career as the only rookie to earn a roster spot with the Boston Celtics. He spent three seasons in Boston and enjoyed his best year as a professional for the 1986 NBA champions. He played one year with the New York Knicks under head coach Rick Pitino before moving on to New Jersey, where he played briefly for Fitch before being offered an assistant coaching position with the franchise.

Collegiately, Carlisle played two years at the University of Maine before transferring to the University of Virginia, where he was co-captain of the Cavaliers' 1984 Final Four team.

A native of Ogdensburg, New York, Carlisle graduated from Virginia in 1984 with a B.A. in psychology. He and his wife, Donna, have a daughter, Abby. He enjoys golf, piano, table tennis, flying his plane and spending time with his family, which includes two dogs, Zoe and Daisy.

THE CARLISLE FILE

Rick Carlisle guided the Pacers to a 50-32 record in 2024-25. The Pacers finished with their seventh 50-win season in NBA franchise history, and their first since the 2013-14 season (56-26). Carlisle reached 50+ wins for the eighth time in his 23-year head coaching career.

Carlisle entered the 2024-25 season ranked 12th in NBA history in career coaching victories. With the Pacers' overtime win over the Boston Celtics, Oct. 30, Carlisle passed Bill Fitch (Carlisle's former coaching mentor who gave him his first coaching job as an assistant coach for the New Jersey Nets in 1989-90) into 11th place with 944 wins.

Carlisle's 338 wins stands as the most by a head coach in Pacers NBA history. He passed Frank Vogel for most on the list during the 2023-24 season with Indiana's win at Miami, 12/2/23. He is now one of four coaches to lead two different franchises in NBA coaching victories (Red Auerbach, Phil Jackson, Lenny Wilkens).
