Sam Presti
Executive Vice President & General Manager

Sam Presti is currently in his 18th season with the Thunder franchise and this past year Presti oversaw one of the most historic regular seasons in NBA history.

Oklahoma City set a franchise record with a 68-14 record which is tied for the 5th most wins in a single season in NBA history. The Thunder also registered the largest point differential in NBA history, winning games by an average of 12.9 points per game to surpass the previous record set by the 1971-72 Los Angeles Lakers. Oklahoma City finished the season with a 29-1 record against the Eastern Conference which stands as the best record in league history versus an opposing conference.

In addition to the record win totals, the Thunder won in dominant fashion this past season. Oklahoma City set an NBA record by claiming 54 double-digit wins. As a point of reference, no other Western Conference team won more than 52 games total during the 2024-25 season. The 16-win margin between the Thunder and the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference tied the largest gap in league history.

During Presti's tenure leading basketball operations in Oklahoma City, the Thunder has recorded nine 50-win equivalent seasons since 2010 which represents the most in the NBA during this span.

Oklahoma City enters the 2025 postseason for the 13th time in the last 16 seasons which represents the second-most postseasons for any NBA team during this span.

At the conclusion of this past season, Presti made front office history by joining Red Auerbach, Jerry West and Pat Riley to become only the 4th head of basketball operations in NBA history to lead their respective teams to multiple 60-win seasons with entirely different rosters.

Since the start of Presti's leadership in Oklahoma City, the Thunder has captured seven Northwest Division Championships and reached the Conference Finals four times, including the team's trip to the NBA Finals in 2012. Since 2010, the Thunder owns the second-best record in the NBA during this span (.603).

Presti was 29 years old when he was named General Manager on June 7, 2007, making him the second youngest person to ever hold the position in NBA history. The next season he was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton I. Bennett. Presti stands as the third-most tenured head of basketball operations in the NBA. Presti and Bennett also represent the second-longest pairing for a Governor of an NBA team and head of basketball operations.

Throughout the Thunder's time in Oklahoma City, the organization has been known as one of the premier franchises in the NBA for player development. As a result, both Thunder teams and individuals have set historic marks for accomplishment at very young ages.

The Thunder claimed record success this season despite being the youngest team in the NBA as of opening night (24 years and 148 days). Oklahoma City became the second-youngest No. 1 seed in a conference this year, surpassed only by the 2023-24 Thunder team. The Thunder additionally have had the three youngest teams to ever win 55+ games in NBA history with the rosters in 2023-24, 2024-25 and 2010-11 ranking No. 1, 2 and 3. During the 2023-24 season , the Thunder became the youngest team in NBA history to clinch a playoff berth, win a playoff game and to win a playoff series, besting marks that were previously set by the Thunder in 2010.

The Thunder achieved a 17-win improvement in 2023-2024 and during the 2022-23 season, Presti oversaw a 16-win improvement, making the Thunder one of just four teams in NBA history to see that level of improvement in consecutive seasons.

Since the NBA/ABA merger in 1976, the Thunder enjoyed the most successful first 17 seasons of any expansion or relocation team. The Thunder ranks first in wins per season, winning percentage, net rating, playoff series wins, Division titles, Conference Finals Appearances and tied for 1st in NBA Finals appearances, compared to the other 17 expansion or relocation teams. Additionally, the Thunder ranks first with four First Team All-NBA players (nine total First Team All-NBA selections) when compared across the same timeline to those other 17 teams. Presti is the only current NBA General Manager to draft four All-NBA players.

Presti led the Thunder to the second-best record in the NBA for more than a decade (2009-2020), and the seventh best winning percentage in all of the four major North American professional sports, creating an unprecedented period of sustained success in one of the smallest markets in the NBA.

After acquiring six-time All-Star Paul George in a landmark trade from the Indiana Pacers in June of 2017, George then signed a multi-year deal with the Thunder in the summer of 2018. This occurred the year after Oklahoma City signed Russell Westbrook to his third multi-year contract extension in September of 2017. Following the 2018-19 season, Presti began repositioning and replenishing the franchise with a series of moves, acquiring Chris Paul, Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, Danilo Gallinari, eight first round draft picks and four pick swaps in separate deals involving Paul George, Russell Westbrook and Jerami Grant. In the George deal alone, the Thunder acquired five first round picks, a record for first round picks to come back in a single trade. This new version of the Thunder again made the playoffs in 2020, earning the fifth seed in the Western Conference.

Entering the 2025 playoffs, Gilgeous-Alexander concluded one of the most successful regular seasons in NBA history. He joined Michael Jordan as the second player in league history to average 30-plus points on 50% shooting to go along with at least five rebounds, five assists, 1.5 steals and one block. In addition to winning the NBA scoring title during the 2024-25 season, Gilgeous-Alexander has been named a three-time NBA All-Star, a two-time All-Star starter and First Team All-NBA honors twice.

Before the start of the 2020-2021 season, in order to continue to reposition the franchise, Presti and the Thunder executed 11 trades with 15 different teams, marking the most activity for a team in a single offseason since the advent of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985. Currently, Presti and the Thunder have amassed a total of 13 first-round and 16 second-round picks to accompany four first round pick swaps through the 2031 NBA Draft.

Throughout his time leading the Thunder's basketball operations efforts, Presti and his staff have enjoyed incredible success with respect to the NBA Draft, beginning with the 2007 selection of Kevin Durant with the second overall pick. Presti went on to draft Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka in 2008 with the fourth and 24th selections, before taking James Harden with the third overall pick in 2009. The selections of Durant, Westbrook and Harden marked the only time in NBA history where future MVPs were selected by the same GM in three consecutive drafts.

More recently, Chet Holmgren (2023-24) and Jalen Williams (2022-23) both finished second in rookie of the year voting after they were selected 2nd and 12th, respectively in the 2022 NBA Draft. This past season, Williams received his first career all-star selection. Cason Wallace also received NBA All-Rookie honors and emerged as a strong rotation player during his rookie year after being selected 10th overall in the 2023 NBA Draft.

During Presti's tenure, the Thunder front office have either drafted or traded for 13 All-Stars (K. Durant, R. Westbrook, J. Harden, V. Oladipo, D. Sabonis, P. George, C. Anthony, C. Paul, A. Horford, Gilgeous-Alexander, G. Hayward and J. Williams). Since 2008, the Thunder leads the NBA with 16 First Team or Second Team All-NBA appearances.

The Thunder is one of only five teams to have 20 or more All-Star appearances since 2009-10 and this past season the Thunder was the only Western Conference team to feature two All-Stars.

This past season, the Thunder also became only the second team in NBA history to have three different players to win the NBA's scoring title (Durant, Westbrook and Gilgeous Alexander) joining the Los Angeles Lakers (Jerry West, Shaquille O'Neal and Kobe Bryant).

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder advanced to the postseason five straight years (2010-14) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-60) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons.

During the 2009-10 season, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth-largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by the Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

Since that time, Presti has finished second on two occasions in Executive of the Year Voting (2020 and 2024). In December 2024, The Athletic named Presti and the Thunder as the best front office in sports, as voted on by front office peers across the four North American sports.

As player development has been a signature of the Thunder organization, so has leadership development. Since 2010, the Thunder have produced the most front office members to become general managers as Rich Cho, Will Dawkins, Rob Hennigan, Michael Winger and Troy Weaver were all hired from the Thunder into that respective role.

During his tenure in OKC, Presti has hired three head coaches. The Thunder is the only team in NBA history to have three consecutive coaches named Coach of the Year (Scott Brooks – 2011; Billy Donovan – 2020 and Mark Daigneault - 2024).

Presti has also devoted time serving on several NBA committees. At the request of former NBA Commissioner David Stern and then Deputy Commissioner Adam Silver, Presti was named to the league's first-ever Competition Committee in May of 2012. During his term (2012-2018), Presti was a part of the committee that enacted several rule changes, such as concussion protocol, a package of rules to increase game flow, player rest policies, anti-flopping rules, deliberate away-from-the-play fouls, modifications to playoff seeding, qualification and tie-breakers, and adjustments to the NBA Finals scheduling format.

Additionally, Presti was asked to serve on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee in 2009, which helped to lay the groundwork for rules changes that the Competition Committee would later make regarding instant replay expansion and the expanded use of the replay center. He has also been a part of the General Manager Sub-Committee which was designed to help identify opportunities to enhance the future of the NBA.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks under the leadership of R.C. Buford before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles. During Presti's tenure in San Antonio, the Spurs won no less than 57 games each season and advanced to at least the Western Conference Semifinals each year while maintaining a win percentage of 71.9 percent during a seven-year span.

Community involvement and giving back has been a pillar of the Thunder organization since moving to Oklahoma City in 2008. Presti has led community involvement initiatives for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made nearly 3,000 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti understands how the Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum is part of the fabric of the community and has made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum soon after joining the organization.

Philanthropy has been a lifelong passion and commitment of Presti, his wife Shannon and his family as well. Presti was elected as a member of the Executive Committee at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum after previously serving on the Board of Trustees. While on the Board, Presti helped lead the Memorial's Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

Presti has also created and launched several transformational initiatives. In July of 2020, Presti and his high school teammate, friend and CAA Sports executive Mike Johnson, launched the Thunder Fellows Program, a partnership between the Thunder and CAA Sports intended to unlock new opportunities in sports, technology and entertainment for Black students in the Tulsa area. Located in the Historic Greenwood District of Tulsa, the curriculum offered through the Thunder Fellows Program, focuses on increasing the odds of high school and college completion through mentorship, skill development, and the provision of practical experience. Students are exposed to a variety of disciplines within Thunder basketball operations, where they work on real-world projects for the organization.

The Presti family became significant benefactors to the Children's Hospital at OU Medicine in 2019, as their contributions provided renovations and upgrades to two procedure rooms at the Jimmy Everest Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders for Children and the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit at The Children's Hospital. The Presti's philanthropy also helped create the "Presti Clubhouse," a nurturing and interactive space for children and their parents.

In recent years, Presti has led a fundraising initiative to establish a scholarship in honor of Professor Mike Brown at his alma mater, Emerson College. Professor Brown taught courses on government, civil rights and the First Amendment. The scholarship will support incoming students from historically underserved and underrepresented backgrounds with financial need.

Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle. The scholarship is named after two high school basketball teammates and close friends of Presti's, Anthony Halls and Keenan Smith, who were participants in the METCO program at Presti's high school. The scholarship recognizes Concord-Carlisle High School METCO graduating seniors who: possess good academic and attendance records and who have demonstrated a strong athletic performance.

Presti has impacted the lives of almost 600 students through his Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program. Created in 2011, in partnership with several local organizations, the program aims to help the next generation of youth in the surrounding community and it's currently being taught to the Thunder Fellows students in Tulsa, Okla. Presti has also incorporated UPenn and their standard bearing resilience and optimism training for the students as part of his Forward Thinking program.

OKLAHOMA CITY THUNDER

Through the years, Presti has been involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. In 2018, Presti brought PPI together with the Oklahoma City Police Athletic League and made a significant donation to help the two parties collaborate and develop programs to foster positive relations with youth and law enforcement.

In the spring of 2024, Presti received the Lee Allan Smith Legacy Award from the Oklahoma Hall of Fame. This award is presented annually to someone in the community who is impacts future generations through their civic engagement and volunteer efforts.

During September of 2021, Oklahoma City University announced the induction of Presti into the Oklahoma Commerce and Industry Hall of Honor which recognizes business and community leaders who have made significant contributions to the growth and development of Oklahoma.

In 2016, Presti was awarded the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice thanks to his work in the area of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. He was named 2016 Oklahoman of the Year by Oklahoma Magazine. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law with a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team.

He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision-making.

A skilled drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston.

Presti and his wife Shannon have three children, Nicholas, Millie and Elise.

Mark Daigneault
Head Coach
Thunder Record: 68-14

Mark Daigneault (DAYG-nalt) was named head coach of the Oklahoma City Thunder on Nov. 11, 2020. He is the fourth head coach in Thunder history and is the first person to become an NBA team's head coach after previously being the club's G League head coach. He is the third-youngest active head coach in the NBA.

Daigneault led the 2024-25 Thunder to the best record in the NBA, and for the second-consecutive season, the one seed in the Western Conference and the Northwest Division title. The 24-25 Thunder were the second-youngest one seed in NBA history, only behind the 23-24 Thunder. Daigneault earned Western Conference Coach of the Month honors three times this past season (December, February and March). Oklahoma City earned at least 10 wins in five straight months, en route to winning 68 games, just the seventh team in NBA history to accomplish the feat. Of those wins, 54 of them were by double digits, most in NBA history. The Thunder finished the season with an average margin of victory of 12.9 points, highest in NBA history.

Daigneault was named 2024 NBA Coach of the Year and the 2024 Michael H. Goldberg NBCA Coach of the Year after leading the Thunder to a first-place finish in the Western Conference with a 57-25 record. With Daigneault at the helm, Oklahoma City became the youngest team in NBA history to clinch a No. 1 seed in the conference and win over 55 games. OKC was one of two teams in the 23-24 season to finish top five in both offensive (118.3, 3rd) and defensive rating (111.0, 4th). The Thunder became just the 14th team in NBA history to finish top-three in field goal percentage (49.9), 3-point percentage (38.9) and free throw percentage (82.5). On the defensive end, Oklahoma City ranked tied for the NBA lead with the most blocked shots (6.56) and steals (8.46). Oklahoma City saw its record improve by 17 wins this season, becoming just the fourth team in NBA history to have two consecutive seasons with a 16-plus win improvement.

In the 2022-23 season, Daigneault finished second in coach of the year voting after leading the Thunder to a 40-42 record and an appearance in the Play-In Tournament. The Thunder set team records for points scored in a game twice during the season (153 vs. HOU, 2/4/23 and 150 vs. BOS, 1/3/23). Under his tutelage, Oklahoma City ranked fourth in the league in steals (8.24) and scored the second-most points off turnovers (20.6) in the NBA. The Thunder recorded 17 double-digit comeback wins, tied for the most in the league.

During the 2021-22 season, Daigneault led the youngest team in NBA history to eight 15-plus point comeback wins, tied for the third most such wins since 1996-97. It was tied for the most comebacks after trailing by 15-plus points by any Thunder team with the 2019-20 Thunder team. Prior to the All-Star Break, the Thunder boasted a stout defense, ranking eighth in defensive rating at 108.6.

He spent the 2019-20 season as an assistant coach for Oklahoma City and became the fourth-straight head coach of the Thunder's G League affiliate to make the move to an NBA bench. Previously, Daigneault served for five seasons as the head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue, the longest-tenured coach in franchise history. During his tenure, he led the Blue to four playoff appearances and a 143-107 (.572) record, the most wins by a coach in franchise history. Daigneault also coached the Thunder's Summer League team for three summers.

Daigneault led the Blue to its third consecutive division championship in the 2018-19 season, as the team tied a franchise record with 34 wins and advanced to the conference semifinals. The Massachusetts native was named NBA G League Coach of the Month three times in his tenure, including twice during the 2018-19 season.

During the 2017-18 campaign, the Blue made finished the regular season at the top of the Midwest division and ranked third in the Western Conference. The 2016-17 season saw several records set, as Daigneault led the team to a franchise-record-tying 34 wins. The Blue finished as the regular-season Western Conference Champions and advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time under Daigneault.

In 2015-16, Daigneault joined Billy Donovan's Thunder coaching staff midseason on Feb. 17 in place of Thunder assistant Maurice Cheeks, who was sidelined for six weeks due to hip surgery. Daigneault remained with the Thunder for the conclusion of the 2015-16 season and entirety of the Thunder's postseason campaign to the Western Conference Finals.

Under his watch, the Blue had eight players called up to NBA rosters, four players signed to Two-Way Contracts and 10 Thunder players assigned.

Daigneault came to Oklahoma City after spending four years working under Donovan at the University of Florida, where he last held the position of assistant to the head coach. Throughout his four years at Florida, the Gators totaled a record of 120-30 (.800), won three SEC titles and advanced to the Elite Eight each year.

Prior to his time at Florida, Daigneault spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. During Daigneault's tenure, the Crusaders finished as runner-up of the Patriot League Championship in 2008-09.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Daigneault served as a student manager with the Huskies under Jim Calhoun from 2003-07. A native of Leominster, Mass., Daigneault holds a master's degree in sports management from the University of Florida. He and his wife, Ashley Kerr, have two children, AJ and Stella.

Dave Bliss
Assistant Coach

Dave Bliss is in his sixth season as an assistant coach for the Thunder and 12th overall with the organization. He returned to Oklahoma City at the start of the 2018-19 season to serve as senior player development coach after spending three seasons with the New York Knicks as a player development coach. He previously worked with Oklahoma City as video analyst/player development coach from 2010-15 and has also served as the head coach for the Thunder's summer league team.

He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at the University of Georgia before transitioning to Virginia Commonwealth University to work as a graduate assistant. Bliss worked under Head Coach Shaka Smart in his time at VCU, helping the team to a 27-9 record. Bliss also served as an assistant coach for Germany's men's senior national team in 2016 and 2017.

A four-year starter at Georgia, Bliss played a key role as the Bulldogs won the school's second SEC Conference Tournament Championship in 2008. The Wisconsin native holds a master's in education from VCU and graduated with honors from Georgia with degrees in political science and real estate.

David Akinyooye
Assistant Coach

David Akinyooye (ah-kin-YO-yay) is in his 10th season with the franchise and sixth as a Thunder assistant coach. Akinyooye spent four seasons as an assistant coach for the Oklahoma City Blue. He came to Oklahoma City in 2015 following a one-year stint as an assistant coach in Lyon, France with Asvel Lyon-Villeurbanne Basket.

Prior to his time in Lyon, Akinyooye served the San Antonio Spurs as a player development quality assurance assistant during San Antonio's 2013-14 NBA championship season. He began his coaching career in 2012-13 with the New York Knicks in the role of coaching workout associate.

Following a collegiate career at Adelphi University in New York, Akinyooye played one season with the Springfield Armor of the NBA G League. The Elmont, N.Y. native received a Bachelor of Science in Communication from Adelphi in 2011.

Mike Wilks
Assistant Coach

Mike Wilks is amid his sixth season as an assistant coach for the Thunder, his 13th with the organization overall. Wilks spent seven seasons working in the front office, most recently holding the title of senior pro evaluation scout before transitioning to the bench. He is the fourth former Thunder player (Royal Ivey, Eric Maynor, DJ White) to join the team's coaching staff.

He enjoyed a seven-year NBA playing career where he appeared in 233 games with ten different NBA teams and won an NBA championship with the San Antonio Spurs in 2005.

The Milwaukee native played four years of basketball at Rice University where he majored in Economics and earned Western Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete honors in his senior year.

Grant Gibbs
Assistant Coach

Grant Gibbs is working his eighth season with the organization and third as an assistant coach with the Thunder. Prior to this role, he spent three seasons as the head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue.

Gibbs became the seventh head coach in Blue franchise history after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach for the Blue from 2017-2019. In his time on the bench, the team went 62-38 (.620) and advanced to the playoffs in both years.
