MICHAEL JORDAN
ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

An NBA legend, Michael Jordan was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September 2009. As a player, Jordan virtually rewrote the record book. He played 13 seasons for the Chicago Bulls, leading the league in scoring a record 10 times. His 30.1 points per game average is the highest in NBA history and, with 32,292 points, he ranks fifth on the all-time scoring list. Jordan led the Chicago Bulls to six NBA Championship titles and was named NBA Finals MVP during each of those series. A five-time regular season MVP, in 1991 and 1992, he became the only player to win back-to-back regular season and Finals MVP awards. In 2022, the NBA unveiled the Michael Jordan Trophy, which is awarded to the league's regular season MVP.

Jordan burst onto the national stage as a freshman at the University of North Carolina, leading his team to the NCAA Championship with a dramatic game-winning shot. Following a stellar college career during which he was a two-time College Player of the Year and first team All-America, Jordan was chosen with the third pick of the 1984 NBA Draft. He is a two-time Olympic Gold Medal winner, most famously as a member of the 1992's "Dream Team."

After a brief stint as an owner and executive with the Washington Wizards in 2000-01, Jordan returned to the court as a player for the team for the 2001-02 and 2002-03 seasons before retiring.

In March 2010, Jordan became the majority owner of the Charlotte Bobcats, after four years as part of the team's ownership group, and was the first former player to become the majority owner of an NBA franchise. Under his direction, the team changed its name to the Charlotte Hornets prior to the 2014-15 season, bringing the historic moniker back to its fans and the city. Jordan sold his majority interest in Hornets Sports & Entertainment in 2023 and remains a minority investor and the team's Alternate Governor.

Off the court, Michael Jordan is a successful businessman, investor and philanthropist. Since its creation, his Jordan Brand (a division of NIKE) has been an innovator of athletic shoes and apparel. The Jordan Brand has grown to become a market leader under Jordan's creative design input. Along with three-time Daytona 500 winner, Denny Hamlin, Jordan launched a NASCAR team, 23XI Racing, in the fall of 2020.

As one of the world's most popular and recognizable figures, Jordan's endorsement portfolio includes 2K, Gatorade and Upper Deck, among others. He is a founding partner in Cincoro, an award-winning tequila company. His other business ventures include several thriving restaurants. Jordan also serves as a special advisor to the Board of Directors of DraftKings and Sportradar.

Jordan strongly believes in giving back to the community. He has long supported many charitable causes that provide opportunities for at-risk youth, help kids with disabilities and illnesses and teach and mentor children. In 2017, Jordan donated $7 million to fund two Novant Health Michael Jordan Family Medical Clinics in Charlotte. The clinics have provided critical health care services to thousands of patients. Jordan made an additional gift of $10 million in early 2020 for two medical clinics in his hometown, Wilmington, North Carolina, the first of which opened in May 2024. Jordan has served as Make-A-Wish's Chief Wish Ambassador since 2008 and has been a wish granter for the organization for more than 30 years. In addition, he is a supporter of the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund, the University of North Carolina and the James R. Jordan Boys and Girls Club in Chicago, as well as numerous other organizations. Jordan is also a founding donor of the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, DC. In 2020, he, along with Jordan Brand, announced their 10-year, $100 million Black Community Commitment initiative, dedicated to addressing systemic racism and improving the lives of Black Americans.

In 2016, Jordan was awarded the Presidential Medal Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor, by President Barack Obama.

Jordan and his wife, Yvette, have two daughters, Victoria and Ysabel. He also has three children, Jeffrey, Marcus and Jasmine, from a previous marriage.

SHELLY CAYETTE-WESTON

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Shelly Cayette-Weston joined Hornets Sports & Entertainment (HSE) as President of Business Operations on July 1, 2024. As president, she oversees the day-to-day business operations for all of HSE's properties, including the Charlotte Hornets, Greensboro Swarm and Spectrum Center. Cayette-Weston brings nearly 20 years of successful, impactful and relationship-based experience in the sports and entertainment industry to HSE.

Since Cayette-Weston arrived in Charlotte, the organization's business operations have been recognized at a national level. The Hornets won the 2025-26 NBA Membership Program of the Year award for its Hive Society Membership program, focused on year-round fan engagement, fostering community among Hornets fans, personalization aspects, and forging a deep emotional connection with fans in-arena with quarterly Chalk Talks with Hornets players, on-court free-throw shooting after select home games, and more.

The Hornets were also a finalist for ESPN's Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year award at the 2026 ESPYs under Cayette-Weston's leadership, which recognizes a professional sports team that demonstrates how sport can strengthen communities and create an impact beyond the game. The Hornets' nomination was earned by the work in helping to revitalize the Riverview Community Center in Ashe County after the wreckage caused by Hurricane Helene. The Hornets, Lowe's, and local partners restored a vital gathering place for residents while helping support the community's ongoing recovery.

Cayette-Weston came to Charlotte after spending the previous 12 years with the Cleveland Cavaliers, including the last two as Executive Vice President & Chief Commercial Officer. She initially joined the Cavaliers in 2012 before rising to Vice President of Global Partnerships and Senior Vice President of Global Partnerships. Cayette-Weston oversaw all aspects of ticketing, suites and premium hospitality, client experience as well as corporate partnerships, including growth, new business development, innovation and retention for the Cavaliers, Lake Erie Monsters (AHL), Cleveland Charge (NBA G League) and Cavs Legion GC (NBA 2K League).

Under Cayette-Weston's leadership, the Cavaliers became one of the top performing revenue franchises in the NBA during the last 10 years. She oversaw core initiatives, including launching a client engagement team, securing jersey patch partners, arena renovations, development of a new practice facility, international business strategy and the growth of Cleveland's youth sports outreach, all of which created a positive impact on the business, stakeholders and the community. During her time in Cleveland, Cayette-Weston was committed to serving the community with a focus as a civic leader and furthering economic growth. She served on various boards, including the Cuyahoga Community College Board, the College Now Board and the Commission on Economic Inclusion Committee, in addition to the American Heart Association.

Cayette-Weston spent the first five years of her NBA career with the New Orleans Hornets where she worked in marketing, community investment and corporate partnerships. Before joining the NBA, she began her sports and entertainment career at Caesar's Entertainment in database marketing and advertising.

A graduate of Tulane University, where she was a member of the women's basketball team, Cayette-Weston earned a degree in business management & marketing. In 2024, Cayette-Weston was inducted into the Tulane Athletics Hall of Fame and recognized with the Don and Lora Peters Career Achievement Award. She was named to Crain's Cleveland Business Forty Under 40 in 2019 and Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 in 2021.

A native of New Orleans, Shelly and her husband, Aron, have two daughters, Ivy Grace and Averie Marie.

MIKE BEHAN

CHIEF BUSINESS & REVENUE OFFICER

Behan enters his second season with Hornets Sports & Entertainment and brings extensive experience in the industry, with a proven track record of leadership, partnership development and revenue generation.

Behan joined HSE from Legends – a globally recognized leader in premium live events – where he played an instrumental role in launching Legends College, a first-of-its-kind company dedicated to assisting universities and athletic departments in elevating the experience of fans and growing revenues. As President of Legends College, Behan successfully led strategic partnerships with over 25 major universities and athletic programs, including Notre Dame, Ohio State, Florida State, Oklahoma and Georgia Tech, while overseeing a team of over 300 full-time employees. Under his leadership, the company generated significant revenue growth.

Before joining Legends, Behan gained invaluable experience working in the NBA, both at the league and team level. During his time with the NBA, he served as Director of Team Marketing & Business Operations. In this role, he consulted with NBA, WNBA and NBA G-League teams to optimize their revenue streams across ticket sales, sponsorships, premium seating and merchandise. Behan began his NBA career with the Cleveland Cavaliers (2005-2010), starting in their inside sales department and ultimately advancing to the role of Director of Ticketing.

Behan moved to Charlotte from the New Jersey area with his wife, Amanda, and three children: Madison, Emma and William.

DONNA JULIAN

Under her leadership, the arena has hosted nearly 25,000,000 fans at more than 2,500 events, including sporting events, concerts, family shows, conventions and more. Spectrum Center has been the site of two of the largest events ever to visit the city of Charlotte, the 2012 Democratic National Convention and the 2019 NBA All-Star Weekend, and has hosted the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament twice and NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament action on five occasions. In 2024, Front Office Sports named Spectrum Center as one of 10 recipients of its inaugural Most Sustainable Awards. Prior to coming to Charlotte, Julian spent 15 years as General Manager of 1st Mariner Arena in Baltimore. She was elevated to General Manager after serving in a number of roles in sales, marketing and event administration for Centre Management, the operating company for the Capital Centre (later USAir Arena), home of the Washington Bullets and Washington Capitals.

Julian was selected as one of Sports Business Journal's Game Changers in 2020 and was one of VenuesNow's inaugural All-Stars in 2019. She serves on the North Carolina Emergency Response Commission representing the public assembly venue sector, the Governor's COVID-19 Large Gatherings Task Force, the Executive Committee of the NC Live Coalition, the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Sports Leadership Council and the Leadership Development Committee of the International Association of Venue Managers.

Julian previously served as Chair of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Carolinas and remains an active Big Sister to Little Sister Hannah. Recently, Julian received the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Carolinas 2024 Alumni of The Year Award. She is also very active within the community as a member of the Women Executives (WE) Governance Committee, the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Foundation Board, the Advisory Board of the African American Leadership Academy of Charlotte and the Blumenthal Arts Board of Trustees.

Julian received her bachelor's degree in athletics administration from Ohio University, where she was a four-year letter winner and co-captain of the tennis team as a senior, as well as a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. JEFF PETERSON

PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Jeff Peterson enters his third full season with the Hornets after being hired by the franchise on March 5, 2024. In his role as President of Basketball Operations, Peterson is the organization's chief basketball decision maker and is responsible for leading the team's day-to-day basketball operations.

Since joining the Hornets, Peterson has reshaped the roster via several trade acquisitions and the organization's past three draft classes. He has accumulated the second-most future draft picks of any team in the NBA for Charlotte (31 through 2033), including three additional unprotected first-round picks on top of the Hornets' own future draft selections.

The organization selected Rookie of the Year runner-up Kon Knueppel with the 4th overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft, who proceeded to become the first rookie in NBA history to lead the league in total 3-pointers made in a season (273), and has also added Christian Anderson Jr. Sion James, Ryan Kalkbrenner, Liam McNeeley, Tidjane Salaün and Hannes Steinbach through the draft in the last three years. Along with acquiring Coby White from Chicago and re-signing him to a multiyear deal, Peterson acquired Naz Reid and multiple draft picks from Minnesota in exchange for LaMelo Ball and Josh Green, and traded Miles Bridges for Grayson Allen, Royce O'Neale and an unprotected first-round pick.

Peterson joined the Hornets after four-plus seasons as assistant general manager for the Brooklyn Nets. While with Brooklyn, he played a key role in helping engineer several significant player acquisitions, including signing Kevin Durant and Kyrie Irving as free agents, trading for James Harden, Mikal Bridges and Cam Johnson, and drafting Cam Thomas and Nic Claxton. During his tenure with the Nets, Peterson oversaw Brooklyn's college scouting department and added the team's pro scouting department to his responsibilities in the last two seasons.

Prior to his time with the Nets, Peterson spent seven years with the Atlanta Hawks, including the last three years as the team's assistant general manager. He started his career in Atlanta as a seasonal basketball operations assistant in 2012 and after one season was promoted to coordinator of basketball operations. He was named the Hawks' director of scouting in 2015 before being promoted to assistant general manager at the age of 27.

A native of Springfield, Missouri, Peterson played college basketball at Iowa, Arkansas and Florida State. Peterson earned an undergraduate degree in marketing at Arkansas and his master's degree in marketing at Florida State. He was named to The Athletic's NBA 40 Under 40 List in May 2022 and August 2024.

CHARLES LEE

HEAD COACH

Charles Lee was hired as the 12th head coach in franchise history on May 9, 2024. He has 10 years of coaching experience as an NBA assistant and has now completed two seasons as Head Coach of the Charlotte Hornets. Lee joined the Hornets after winning the 2023-24 NBA championship with the Boston Celtics and was named to The Athletic NBA's 40 Under 40 in August 2024.

Lee led the Hornets to a 25-win improvement from his first season to his second season patrolling the sideline, the largest year-over-year improvement in the win column in franchise history. Though Charlotte's record dipped to 16-28 early in the schedule, the team underwent a historic turnaround at the turn of the calendar. Under Lee's guidance, the Hornets ripped off a nine-game winning streak, the franchise's longest winning streak since 1999, and won 10-straight games on the road over a month-long span to set a franchise record for consecutive road victories.

In Lee's offensive system, the Hornets became the fourth team in NBA history to have three players—LaMelo Ball, Kon Knueppel and Brandon Miller—each record 200 3PM in a season. Ball and Miller each won Eastern Conference Player of the Week with Lee at the helm while Knueppel became the first rookie ever to lead the league in total 3-pointers made in a season (273), finished as the runner-up in Rookie of the Year voting and was unanimously selected to the All-Rookie First-Team.

Lee claimed his first-career Eastern Conference Coach of the Month award in January 2026 and helped ensure that Charlotte's hot streak carried through the end of the season, culminating in the first home postseason victory since 2016 when the 9-seed Hornets topped the 10-seed Miami Heat in the First Stage of the Play-In Tournament.

Prior to his time in Boston, Lee served five seasons (2018-2023) as an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Bucks, ascending to associate head coach and helping guide the team to the 2020-21 NBA championship. He started his NBA career as an assistant coach for four seasons (2014-2018) with the Atlanta Hawks. Throughout his 10 NBA seasons as an assistant, Lee's teams accumulated a 510-291 (.637) regular-season record, reached the playoffs nine times, captured seven division titles and earned five Eastern Conference No. 1 seeds. In four of his last six seasons as an assistant, his team finished the regular season with the best record in the NBA.

During Lee's 2023-24 campaign with Boston, the Celtics finished with the NBA's top record (64-18). Boston's 64 wins marked the fourth-most in a season in franchise history. With Lee's assistance, the Celtics led the NBA in offensive rating and net rating while finishing third in defensive rating.

While in Milwaukee, despite two COVID-shortened regular seasons, the Bucks averaged 54.2 wins over the course of Lee's five years with the team, including a 60-win campaign in 2018-19, tying for the third-most victories in a season in franchise history.

In Atlanta, Lee helped engineer a Hawks defense that finished in the top six in defensive rating three straight seasons. Atlanta won a franchise-record 60 games and advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals in Lee's first year with the team (2014-15),

Lee began his coaching career at his alma mater, Bucknell University, where he was an assistant for two seasons (2012-2014). He played four seasons (2002-2006) with the Bison, leading the team to two Patriot League titles and the only two NCAA Tournament victories in school history, including a win over No. 3 Kansas as a No. 14 seed in 2005. A 2017 inductee into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, Lee was the 2005-06 Patriot League Player of the Year, a three-time All-Patriot League selection and the first player in conference history to win back-to-back Patriot League Tournament MVP awards. After beginning the process to acquire an NBA G League team earlier that year, on October 27, 2015, the Charlotte Hornets officially announced their right to own and operate an NBA G League team in Greensboro, North Carolina. With the purchase, the Hornets became the 11th NBA franchise to fully own and operate a G League affiliate. On December 29, the Hornets revealed the name and identity of its new affiliate as the Greensboro Swarm. In addition to being closely tied to the Hornets brand, the name also represents the city of Greensboro, where fans gather in great numbers to support the game of basketball.

Located just 90 miles northeast of Charlotte, the Swarm play its 24 home games at the newly renovated Novant Health Fieldhouse at the Greensboro Coliseum Complex. The close proximity allows the Hornets to use the G League in a more efficient manner, providing a seamless transition for both players and coaches. Placing the team in Greensboro also expands the Hornets' brand to another city in North Carolina with a great basketball tradition.

STEVE SWETOHA

GREENSBORO SWARM PRESIDENT

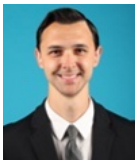

Steve Swetoha is entering his 11th season as the Team President of the Greensboro Swarm, the NBA G League affiliate owned and operated by Hornets Sports and Entertainment. The Swarm won the 2025-26 NBA G League Championship with Swetoha as Team President, the first-ever championship for the organization in just its second-ever playoff berth.

Prior to his arrival in Greensboro, Swetoha was the President, General Manager and Chief Revenue Officer of the WNBA's Tulsa Shock for six years. He oversaw both basketball and business operations and lead the team to their first ever winning season and playoff appearance in 2015.

Swetoha has previous experience in the NFL, NBA, NHL, WNBA and the ACC in various roles ranging from Director of Sales to Senior Vice President of Sales and Retention to Vice President of Business Operations. An alum of Robert Morris University, he earned his Bachelor of Science degree with a concentration in Sport Management and in 2010 was elected to the Robert Morris Sport Management Hall of Fame Class. Swetoha has also earned his master's degree in Sports Leadership at Duquesne University.

Swetoha is an active member of the Triad community, where he sits on a number of leadership boards including Junior Achievement (board chair), Guilford Merchants Association, YMCA Metro Board and the Greensboro Sports Foundation. Swetoha is also on the Member Engagement Advisory Board of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce and member of the Greensboro Sports Council.

Swetoha is married to Susan Shepherd. Together they have a daughter, Sophia, and a son, Matthew.

MIKE PIRES

GREENSBORO SWARM GENERAL MANAGER

Entering his first season as General Manager of the Greensboro Swarm, Pires brings nearly a decade of NBA scouting and basketball operations experience to his new role, and will continue to serve as Director of Pro Personnel for the Hornets while overseeing the Swarm's basketball operations.

Pires becomes the Swarm's fourth General Manager. Prior to joining the Hornets, Pires spent five seasons working with Jeff Peterson as a member of the Brooklyn Nets' basketball operations department as a Pro Scout.

Pires began his NBA career with the Spurs organization during the 2015-16 season as a Quality Assurance Assistant with the Austin Spurs. In 2016-17, he joined the San Antonio Spurs' basketball operations staff as a Scouting/Personnel Quality Assurance Assistant before being promoted to G League Scout in 2018-19. Following his time with the Spurs, Pires joined the Brooklyn Nets, where he continued his work in player evaluation as a Pro Scout before joining the Hornets in 2024 as the Director of Pro Personnel. Prior to his NBA career, Pires served as a Graduate Assistant with the Michigan State Men's Basketball team for two seasons from 2013-15 which included a Big Ten Tournament Championship, an Elite Eight appearance (2014) and a Final Four appearance (2015).

As General Manager of the Greensboro Swarm, Pires will oversee the team's basketball operations and play a key role in the continued development of players within the Hornets' organization.

ZACH PETERSON

GREENSBORO SWARM HEAD COACH

Zach Peterson becomes the fifth Head Coach in Swarm history after originally joining the Hornets as part of Head Coach Charles Lee's inaugural coaching staff in 2024.

Peterson served as an Assistant Coach and Director of Player Development on Lee's coaching staff, overseeing the development of Two-Way players like Moussa Diabate and PJ Hall, along with assignment players such as Liam McNeeley and Tidjane Salaün. Under Peterson's guidance, Diabate was converted from a Two-Way contract to a standard NBA contract in his first season with the Hornets and claimed the Kia NBA Hustle Award last season.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Peterson spent two seasons (2022-24) as an Assistant Coach with the Los Angeles Lakers after serving three seasons (2019-22) as a Player Development Coach with the Oklahoma City Thunder. He previously worked alongside Lee for five seasons with the Atlanta Hawks (2014-18) and Milwaukee Bucks (2018-19), progressing from Video Intern to Assistant Video Coordinator and then Head Video Coordinator with Atlanta before serving as Head Video Coordinator with Milwaukee.

Peterson began his NBA career with the Hawks and also served as an Assistant Coach with the German national team during EuroBasket 2017. Peterson began his coaching career as a student manager under Michigan State basketball greats Suzy Merchant and Tom Izzo.

COMMUNITY

CHARLOTTE HORNETS FOUNDATION

The Charlotte Hornets Foundation (CHF) has long been committed to using the power of basketball to strengthen communities across the Carolinas. After more than a decade of investing millions of dollars and thousands of volunteer hours into education, hunger relief, military support, and wellness initiatives, the Foundation is now entering an exciting new era of growth and focus.

Under a refreshed ownership and leadership team, CHF spent time listening to community voices, partners, fans, and youth leaders to reimagine its mission for today's challenges and opportunities. The result is a bold, strategic plan designed to make impact more visible, inclusive, and lasting.

Our renewed focus is built around four core pillars: Empowering Communities, Creating Opportunities, Championing Our Next Generation, and Leading with Care.

These pillars guide how we invest, partner, and serve—expanding beyond Charlotte to reach underserved communities throughout the Carolinas, while also increasing player presence, storytelling, and volunteer engagement.

As we enter this next chapter, the Charlotte Hornets Foundation is committed to; Amplifying awareness and impact through authentic storytelling and community presence; Expanding reach to address needs across both North and South Carolina; Strengthening volunteerism and fan involvement alongside players and partners; Driving innovative, sustainable fundraising to maximize every dollar's impact.

Together—with our fans, partners, and players—we are shaping a stronger, more connected Carolinas and proving that our greatest wins happen far beyond the court.

Welcome to the 2026-27 Charlotte Hornets season. Please familiarize yourself with the following guidelines and policies in order to ensure a safe and quality work environment. Feel free to contact the Hornets Communications Department with any questions regarding these policies or with any other inquiries.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is in the Preferred Parking lot at 241 N. Alexander St. The entrance to the lot on the east side of N. Davidson St. between 5th and 6th St. Media with season-long credentials will receive a parking pass; single-game media will be put on a parking list on a per-game basis. Please contact Chase Whitney (cwhitney@hornets.com) with any media parking inquiries.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media entrance will open two and a half hours prior to the scheduled tip-off time. Working media should enter Spectrum Center from the Rick Bonnell Media/Employee Entrance near 5th St. and Brevard St. There is a sign marking the entryway visible from the sidewalk on 5th St. adjacent to the Novant Health Training Center. Upon entry, media should head to the Media Work Room located on the event level.

SINGLE-GAME CREDENTIALS

Media members wishing to cover a single game must submit their requests at least 48 hours prior to the intended game. Single-game credentials will be issued on a space-available basis. All requests can be submitted to Chase Whitney via e-mail (cwhitney@hornets.com).

Requests from foreign and international media should be submitted to Paige Snitker of the NBA public relations department (psnitker@nba.com) and must be received at least three business days prior to the intended game. Credentials can be picked up at the media entrance of the arena beginning two and a half hours prior to tip-off and ending at the conclusion of the first quarter. Photo identification will be required when picking up credentials at the media entrance. Applying for credentials does not guarantee confirmation and credential-holders are not inherently entitled to full access at Spectrum Center.

PREGAME & POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

Hornets Head Coach Charles Lee will hold his pregame media session 105 minutes prior to the tip-off in the Press Conference Room, and he will conduct his postgame media session immediately postgame in the same location. During postgame media sessions, priority will be given to media who are on deadline (print and live broadcast) and interviews should be limited to game comments. Visiting team media availabilities will be conducted in the Media Work Room across the hall from the Press Conference Room.

SEATING

Home and visiting television and radio positions will be located in the upper center court sections of 105. Writers will be located in section 105 or sections 108-111. A seating chart will be posted on the walls outside of the Media Work Room, Media Dining Room, and at the top of the staircases of sections 105 and 108-111.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Season passes will be provided to accredited photographers from daily newspapers and television stations that cover the majority of Hornets regular season home games. Photographers must be on assignment for a publication to be credentialed; freelance coverage for personal use is not permitted. No photography of any Hornets game shall be released to any individual other than the entity for whom the pass was issued and is subject to the rules governing such use as described on the reverse side of the credential. All photographers and TV camera operators located on the floor must stay in their designated photo lane spot on the court or at the top of section 111. Photographers must remain stationary at all times. Flashbulbs are not permitted at any time.

AUTOGRAPH & PHOTOGRAPH POLICY

Media members are not permitted to solicit or receive autographs or photographs from players, coaches, or any NBA or NBA team staff member at any time.

IN MEMORIAM

RICK BONNELL

Rick Bonnell was an award-winning sportswriter for more than 33 years at The Charlotte Observer whose coverage of the Charlotte Hornets started during the franchise's inaugural 1988-89 season. Bonnell continued his role as the Observer's Hornets beat writer through the 2020-21 NBA season until his passing on June 1, 2021. He was 63.

A native of Corning, NY, Bonnell was the son of a sports journalist. He began his own journalism career while attending West High School, reporting on high school sports. Bonnell graduated from the Newhouse School of Journalism at Syracuse University before becoming The Observer's first Hornets beat writer. Bonnell wrote a book about the early Hornets, "Charlotte Hornets: Sharpening the Stinger," which was published in 1993.

Bonnell had more than 11,000 bylines in The Observer and became the unofficial historian of Hornets basketball. He covered all of the key moments throughout team history, including the inaugural 1988-89 season, numerous NBA Drafts, several NBA Playoff games, multiple NBA All-Star Games (two played in the Queen City), the franchise's departure for New Orleans, the NBA's return to Charlotte with the Bobcats, Michael Jordan's purchase of the team, the return of the Hornets name to Charlotte and the team's international trip to China. Through his reporting, he brought fans closer to a wide range of players from Muggsy Bogues, Dell Curry, Larry Johnson and Alonzo Mourning to LaMelo Ball, Terry Rozier and Kemba Walker.

Bonnell became synonymous with the Hornets both locally and nationally as his stories drove the daily media narrative around the team. He was admired for his tireless coverage and vast knowledge of the franchise, which earned the respect of his colleagues, as well as players, coaches and front office staffers throughout the league. Bonnell also served as the president of the Professional Basketball Writers Association from 2007-09.

In 2021, the Charlotte Hornets Foundation established the Rick Bonnell Memorial Scholarship that awards a $10,000 annual scholarship to a journalism student enrolled at a North Carolina college or university. The organization rebranded the Spectrum Center media entrance as the Rick Bonnell Media & Employee Entrance, and the team honored his legacy in-arena at the 2021 Home Opener on Oct. 20. Additionally, the Rick Bonnell Award is given each year to the Hornets player that best represents himself and the franchise with professionalism in his interactions with the media.

IN MEMORIAM

PAT "BIG PAT" DOUGHTY

Pat Doughty served as the public address announcer for the Charlotte Hornets for two decades until his passing on July 24, 2024. He was 55. The Hornets issued the following statement:

"We are deeply saddened by the passing of Pat Doughty, our beloved PA announcer for nearly 20 seasons. Big Pat's vibrant voice was the backbone of our game experience and energized Spectrum Center every night. He was dedicated to our team and our fans, even as he fought health issues in recent years. He will be greatly missed by everyone associated with the Hornets organization. Our thoughts are with Pat's family and his many friends."

A native of Pocomoke City, Md., Doughty joined the organization in 2004, quickly endearing himself to fans with his booming voice and signature calls. He announced nearly 800 games during his time in Charlotte, including the 2019 NBA All-Star Game. He previously served as the PA announcer for men's and women's basketball games at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore from 2000-04, and he was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2020. Doughty was a family man, a friend of many and a veteran of the United States Navy.

Doughty is lovingly remembered by his children, Nilajah and Markeith; brothers, Jeffrey and Anthony; sister, Angel; and grandchildren, Janaz and Skye, in addition to his many uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

SPECTRUM CENTER

The home of the Charlotte Hornets, Spectrum Center hosts approximately 150 events annually, including professional and collegiate sports, major concerts, family shows and conventions. On April 8, 2008, a naming rights agreement was unveiled with Time Warner Cable, in which the venue located in the heart of uptown Charlotte, North Carolina, was renamed Time Warner Cable Arena. On Oct. 27, 2016, following Time Warner Cable's merger with Charter Communications, the arena was renamed Spectrum Center, reflecting the brand name of Charter's all-digital TV, internet and voice offerings.

Hornets Sports & Entertainment tipped off its Re!magine Spectrum Center campaign in the summer of 2024, marking the beginning of a transformative two-year renovation project that is one of the first steps the organization is taking to bring to fruition its redefined vision of elevating HSE and maintaining a world-class venue. In 2025, the Re!magine Spectrum Center upgrades were completed. The renovation was guided by a commitment to improving the overall guest experience. From arrival to departure, guests will benefit from a significantly upgraded Spectrum Center. The renovations include the integration of frictionless technology for faster entry and transactions, as well as a comprehensive upgrade of food, beverage and hospitality services throughout the venue. Guests will enjoy new gathering spaces on every floor of the arena, expanded menu and bar offerings, and an increased number of grab-and-go markets. As previously announced, the Hornets and Levy have flipped a large amount of Spectrum Center's concessions menus since last season, introducing a food and beverage experience curated around the charm of Charlotte and the Carolinas.

The renovations elevate the fan experience, provide additional seating, enhance the Uptown Concourse, improve club and hospitality experiences, diversify premium offerings, offer better food and beverage experiences and upgrade the back of house. The project also places an emphasis on sustainability, and Spectrum Center was named as one of 10 recipients of Front Office Sports' inaugural Most Sustainable Awards. The list ranked sports organizations and properties that are leveraging their reach, influence and resources to safeguard the planet. Highlights and details from each phase of the renovation project are featured below:

Phase Two Highlights
- Seating and Bowl Enhancements: 1,400 new lower-level seats have been added, enabling more fans to be closer to the action. All seats throughout the bowl have been replaced, offering improved comfort and sightlines for every guest.
- Belk Concourse: Upgraded the entire concourse with cleaner, modern finishes throughout, and added new signage, wayfinding, lighting and flooring. Installed a new 225-foot-long LED board in the main lobby to greet guests as they enter the building. Two additional restrooms were added, and all existing restrooms were refreshed. A new Novant Health Parents Room and Sensory Room were built to help ensure all guests needs are met.
- New Gathering Spaces: The Lunazul North District and The South District, each with its own distinct atmosphere, chef-attended action stations, elevated culinary options, and full-service 360-degree wraparound bars are now available for all fans. A newly constructed Baseline Bar on the East side of the arena features a fully open "super Vom" design, offering clear sightlines into the bowl while guests enjoy food and beverages. The newly created 704 Kitchen concept will rotate a local restaurant each month, providing fans with a variety of Charlotte-favorite food options.
- Founders Level: These premium spaces have been modernized and remodeled to deliver a more refined and luxurious experience, further expanding the arena's suite options for guests. Seven additional Founders Level suites were constructed.
- Exterior: A new Trade Street Plaza LED sign (50' wide x 13.5' high) was built at the top of the Trade Street Entrance. Improved exterior wayfinding signage was added around the arena.

Phase One Highlights
Phase one renovations, unveiled last year, laid the foundation for the arena's transformation.
- Novant Health Suite Level: Now features five distinct suite types accommodating groups from two to 130 guests. In addition to 28 Standard Suites, Spectrum Center offers four Party Suites, 13 Mini Suites, one Super Suite, and the First Horizon Bank Theater Box — each providing a unique experience at a range of price points.
- Event Level: Expanded access to club amenities for hundreds of additional guests with the relocation and enhancement of two existing clubs – the Inner Circle Club and the Bank of America Hardwood Club – and the introduction of the recently renamed HondaJet Courtside Club.
- Uptown Concourse: Significant upgrades to the Uptown Concourse included improved lighting, signage, and concession locations. The Dr Pepper Pavilion was redesigned to offer new amenities tailored to some of the Hornets' most passionate supporters.
- Traffic Flow & Entrance Modifications: The addition of a fourth vomitory in the lower level, widened corridors, and reconfigured entrances ensure smoother movement and accessibility. The Belk Light Rail Entrance was added, and a special VIP corridor at the Trade Street Entrance provides direct access to the Event Level.

In addition to public-facing improvements, the renovation included substantial upgrades to back-of-house areas. These enhancements support the needs of teams, promoters, production crews, and entertainers — positioning Spectrum Center for long-term operational success.

Spectrum Center celebrated its 15th anniversary in 2020, having opened its doors on Oct. 21, 2005, with a sold-out performance by the Rolling Stones. Since then, the arena has hosted more than 25 million guests and more than 2,500 events, including global events such as the 2012 Democratic National Convention and the 2019 NBA All-Star Weekend. Spectrum Center has also hosted a variety of regular-season and postseason college basketball action, including the 2008, 2019 and 2024 ACC Men's Basketball Tournaments; the 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament regional semifinals and final; the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first and second rounds in 2011, 2015, 2018 and 2023; and the CIAA Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments for 15 consecutive years from 2006-2020.

Hornets Sports & Entertainment, which operates the city-owned building, sets out to be the premier destination for sports and entertainment in the Carolinas by providing a unique experience for guests while treating them to a superior level of amenities.

Located adjacent to the building's main lobby, the Hornets Fan Shop offers the widest variety of team apparel and gifts found anywhere. The Hornets Fan Shop also carries a wide selection of Jordan Brand apparel, in-line shoes and special Retro releases.

NOVANT HEALTH PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Novant Health Performance Center is a transformative project for the Charlotte Hornets, Novant Health and the City of Charlotte. When completed, the Novant Health Performance Center will feature more than 160,000 square feet of space for training and performance, administrative offices, retail, orthopedic and sports medicine care.

The Novant Health Performance Center will:

- Serve as home to the highest level of personalized health care, training and on-court development with the goal of helping each Hornets player reach their maximum potential in athletic performance, resulting in sustained team success.
- Include a new industry-leading Novant Health Orthopedics & Sports Medicine clinic in Uptown Charlotte. The clinic will be open to the public and provide remarkable world-class patient-centered care to the Charlotte community.
- Serve as a catalyst to create a more vibrant Uptown Charlotte neighborhood surrounding Spectrum Center.

The Novant Health Performance Center will feature more than 160,000 total square feet of space for training and performance, administrative offices, retail, orthopedic and sports medicine care once completed. Project partners include global sports and entertainment venue design firm Populous, construction firms Gilbane Building Company and Charlotte-based R.J. Leeper, and real-estate consulting firm Lincoln Properties, who serves as the owner's rep. The Novant Health Performance Center is scheduled to open in the spring of 2027.

"As we break ground on the Novant Health Performance Center, we are not just constructing a building, we are laying the foundation for an exciting future," said Charlotte Hornets President of Basketball Operations Jeff Peterson. "This facility will be a center of excellence, equipped with cutting-edge technology and state-of-the-art resources to help our athletes perform at the highest level. We are incredibly proud to partner with Novant Health, whose expertise and innovation in sports science and athlete care will make this one of the premier performance centers in the NBA."
